DECEMBER 28, 2023 - DUBAI

City tour (6 hours) and Arabic dinner. The charm of modern architecture and great Arab tradition in this long day exploring the city. First photo stop at Dubai Marina to admire the Ain Dubai Ferris wheel at Bluewaters Island, 250 meters high is the largest in the world. Stop at The Pointe on the Palm: about four kilometers from the coast, on the artificial island Palm Jumeirah, the view of the city and the Palm itself is wonderful. Drive north through the city to the Zabeel Presidential Palace, the Emir's official residence, followed by a visit to the historic district of Al Fahidi. You change your perspective by boarding an abra, the water cab from which you can admire the skyline of modern Dubai while navigating to the historic part of the city where you reach the spice and gold souq for a leisurely stroll. Dinner at Sabaa Restaurant in the Al Seef Heritage hotel, Curio Collection by Hilton. A quaint and informal setting where you can enjoy the authentic flavors and traditions of Arabic cuisine. Unlimited water and soft drinks included. Not to be missed after dinner is a walk along the Creek in the quaint Al Seef neighborhood.

DECEMBER 30, 2023 - DAY IN ABU DHABI

It takes about two hours by road to reach Abu Dhabi, and arrival in the UAE capital immediately leaves one breathless: photo stop at the Louvre Museum, one of the city's icons, a modern architectural work that bears the signature of Jean Nouvel and is a hymn to tolerance and dialogue between cultures and religions. Next comes an immediate change of scenery, from modernity to tradition. Indeed, the picture-postcard Emirates, the ones that have built cities in the desert and shattered all records, retain a rigid attachment to their roots, which they seek to protect and pass on. On a strip of land in Al Marina and run by the Emirates Heritage Club, visit Heritage Village, a faithful reconstruction of a village of the past that shows a glimpse of daily life in the city before the economic boom. Photo stop at the Emirates Palace, arguably the most prestigious and iconic hotel in the city. International buffet lunch at Al Wahda Restaurant in the Grand Millennium Hotel. Then visit to the Qasr Al Watan Presidential Palace-literally "palace of the nation"-is Abu Dhabi's new cultural emblem, allowing visitors to better understand the UAE's culture, explore its heritage and history, and discover the traditions and values that govern the country. Before returning to Dubai, the day ends with a visit to the wonderful and unique Sheikh Zayed Mosque; it can accommodate more than 40,000 worshippers.
