Meet at the airport and depart for Madrid. Arrive in Madrid and transfer privately to hotel in Madrid. Dinner and overnight stay in hotel.

DAY 2 - 9/11/2025 - MADRID

Breakfast at the hotel. In the morning, half-day guided tour of Madrid. Madrid, capital of Spain, is a vibrant, open and extroverted city with a labyrinthine but easy-to-understand historic center. During the scenic tour, you will see iconic sites such as the Puerta de Alcalá, Puerta del Sol, Plaza Cibeles with its monumental fountain, Plaza de Toros, Plaza de España, the exteriors of the Church of San Francisco Grande, the Royal Palace, and the Opera House. Lunch at a Madrid restaurant. In the afternoon, continue the guided tour with a tour of the Prado Museum and the Royal Palace. The Prado Museum houses one of the richest collections of paintings in the world, with celebrated masterpieces by Goya and Velázquez. Madrid's Royal Palace, an impressive example of 18th-century Baroque architecture, was designed by the Italian architect Sacchetti, a disciple of Juvarrá. Inside, you can see works by Tiepolo, Mengs and Goya. Return to the hotel around 6 p.m. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 3 - 10/11/2025 - TOLEDO - GRANADA

Breakfast at the hotel. Depart for Toledo and meet with your Italian guide upon arrival. Guided half-day tour, including the discovery of the Gothic-Mudejar Cathedral, famous for its vast interior and the majestic Capilla Mayor, carved entirely by hand. We will also visit the Church of San Tomè, which houses one of El Greco's most famous paintings, L'Entierro del Conde de Orgaz (1586), and the Synagogue of Santa Maria la Blanca, the oldest and largest in Toledo, characterized by its unmistakable Mudejar-style arches. Free lunch. In the afternoon, continue by bus to Granada. Arrive at the hotel and settle into your reserved rooms. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 4 - 11/11/2025 - GRANADA ALHAMBRA

Breakfast at the hotel. Day dedicated to visiting the Alhambra and Capilla Real. Guided tour in Italian of the Alhambra and Generalife Gardens, lasting about 3 hours. During the tour, you will explore the gardens, the exteriors of the palaces and the interiors of other significant buildings. Lunch and free afternoon. Dinner and overnight at the hotel.

DAY 5 - 12/11/2025 - RONDA - SEVILLE

Breakfast at the hotel. Morning departure for Ronda. Guided half-day tour of the "village of white houses." Located on a plateau, Ronda is bisected by the Tajo River, which flows over a 180-meter ravine. The visit includes a walk through the winding and intricate streets, small squares and the exterior of the Plaza de Toros, the oldest in Spain (1748), all set in a peaceful and quiet atmosphere. Free lunch. Continuation of the journey to Seville. Dinner and overnight stay in hotel.

DAY 6 - 11/13/2025 - SEVILLE

Breakfast at the hotel. The day begins with an overview by bus and continues with a walking tour to discover beautiful Seville. Entrance to the Alcázar of Seville, a masterpiece of Mudéjar art, a style developed in Spain during the Christian reign that blends Islamic architectural influences. This palace is a living testimony to the Islamic dominations that affected Europe between the 7th and 15th centuries, still representing an invaluable artistic and cultural heritage. Free lunch. In the afternoon, guided city tour of Seville. Enjoy a tour of Andalusia's capital, a colorful and elegant city famous for its iconic Giralda and the renowned religious and secular festivals that have made it world-famous. You will visit the Cathedral, the Plaza de España and the Garden of Maria Luisa. Return to the hotel around 6 p.m. Typical dinner accompanied by a Flamenco show. Overnight at the hotel.

DAY 7 - 14/11/2025 - CORDOVA - MADRID

Breakfast at hotel. Guided half-day tour of Cordova. Cordova, once called the ornament of the world, boasts an extraordinary monumental heritage. The Mosque and neighborhoods such as the Jewish and San Lorenzo neighborhoods bear witness to a rich history, while the Andalusian folk essence is reflected in the city's narrow streets and gardens. During the guided tour, you will discover the main monuments, including the famous Cathedral-Mosque, the largest after Mecca's Casbah, a stroll through the characteristic streets of the old core and other symbolic sites of the city. Lunch in a typical restaurant in Cordova. Arrive at your hotel and stay overnight in Madrid.

Discovering Madrid and Andalusia: Between Magic, History and Traditions

Madrid, the capital of Spain, is one of the most dynamic and culturally rich cities in Europe. With its splendid museums, such as the Prado, and vibrant nightlife, it combines history, art, and modernity in a fascinating combination. On the other hand, Andalusia, a region in southern Spain, offers breathtaking landscapes ranging from Mediterranean beaches to the Sierra Nevada mountains. With a history rich in Moorish, Christian and Roman influences, cities such as Seville, Granada and Cordoba tell a unique cultural heritage. The musical tradition of flamenco and an extraordinary gastronomy make this region a fascinating destination that perfectly complements Spain's diverse landscape.
