Day 3 - January 17, 2026: Cairo

After breakfast at the hotel, the morning will be spent visiting the Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM). This museum, among the largest in the world, houses a priceless collection of ancient Egyptian artifacts. Tutankhamun Collection: The GEM is the ideal place to view Tutankhamun's complete treasure trove of gilded sarcophagi, jewelry, furniture, and personal belongings of the young pharaoh. A must-see experience for anyone fascinated by Egyptian history. Other Antiquities: In addition to the Tutankhamun collection, the museum displays thousands of artifacts from all eras, from monumental statues of pharaohs to mummies, from papyri to everyday objects. Greco-Roman Statues: A section of the museum is devoted to statues from the Greco-Roman era, evidence of the influence of these cultures on Egypt. Afternoon: The Citadel and the Khan el Khalili Bazaar. After a lunch at a local restaurant, in the afternoon we will soak in the atmosphere of the Muslim part of the city. Citadel of Saladin: We will visit the Citadel, a medieval fortress that dominates the city, and the Mohamed Ali Mosque, a masterpiece of Ottoman architecture with its dome and minarets towering over the Cairo skyline. We will end the day with a walk through the maze of alleyways of the Khan el Khalili Bazaar, return to the Hotel.

Cairo Express: 4 Days Between History and Myth

15/01/2026 - 18/01/2026

A fascinating journey into the heart of Cairo: between history, culture and spirituality

Discover the millennial soul of Cairo with an itinerary that will take you to the beating heart of Egypt. You'll admire the legendary Pyramids of Giza and the majestic Sphinx, eternal symbols of ancient civilization. You'll delve into the secrets of the tombs of Saqqara, where pyramid architecture was born, and visit Memphis, the first capital of unified Egypt.

It will then be time to be enchanted by the treasures on display at the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization, where history comes alive through extraordinary artifacts. Continue on to the Citadel of Saladin, from which dominates the skyline of the splendid Mohamed Ali Mosque, a jewel of Islamic architecture.

In the Coptic Quarter, you will stroll among ancient Christian churches, visit the historic Ben Ezra Synagogue, and breathe in the spiritual atmosphere of a city where faiths intertwine. The journey will end amid the colors, scents and energy of the famous Khan El Khalili bazaar, amid traditional stores and oriental spices.
