On the occasion of the anniversary of the apparitions, the day begins early with a special flight to Lourdes. Upon arrival, we will head straight to the Sanctuary, where we will experience the first moments of prayer with the greeting to the Grotto, listening to the introduction to the Message of Lourdes and participating in Holy Mass.

After lunch in a restaurant, the afternoon will be devoted to visiting the places associated with St. Bernadette, an opportunity to learn more about her story and experience a moment of silence and reflection. At the end, free time for confessions.

In the late afternoon, if scheduled, the Eucharistic Procession will take place, followed by the Rosary at the Grotto, a very heartfelt and participated moment.

In the evening, return to the airport and return flight to close this incredible intense day, lived under the
