

THE PEARLS OF VENETO: VENICE, VERONA, MURANO AND BURANO

Min number of people: 1

The price refers to: person

The Pearls of Veneto: Venice, Verona, Murano and Burano

Veneto is a region known for its rich cultural heritage, unique landscapes, and vibrant cities.

Verona is a captivating city known for its history, stunning architecture, and literary connections. Juliet's house, with its iconic balcony, the Arena di Verona, a well-preserved Roman amphitheater, and the city's historic center, which is a UNESCO World Heritage site filled with medieval buildings, squares, and churches.

Venice, the capital, is one of the most famous cities in the world, known for its canals and historical architecture. It's a UNESCO World Heritage site and a must-visit for any traveler to Italy.

Near Venice, you can also visit 2 unique islands:

Murano: A small island famous for its centuries-old tradition of glassmaking. Visitors can watch artisans craft intricate glass pieces and explore its charming canals and historic buildings.

Burano: Known for its brightly colored houses and lace-making tradition, Burano is a picturesque island with a peaceful atmosphere, great seafood, and a Lace Museum.