

TUSCANY: BETWEEN CULTURE AND CRAFTSMANSHIP

Duration: 5 days 4 nights

Min number of people: 2

Adult price: 1890

The price refers to: person

Program:

Day 1 - Workshop in Florence

Arrive on your own in Florence and check-in at the selected hotel. Free time available for lunch. In the early afternoon, meet with the local guide and depart for a guided tour exploring some artisan workshops in the historic city center. The experience includes a fascinating marbled paper workshop in the traditional Florentine style—an exceptional activity that showcases the city's history, art, and heritage. After a demonstration of the technique, participants will have the opportunity to create their own personalized paper, selecting colors and patterns. The creation can be taken home or turned into a handcrafted item upon request to the artisan. Return to the hotel on your own. In the evening, dinner at a traditional restaurant within walking distance. Overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 2 - Street Food & Traditions in Florence

Breakfast at the hotel. In the morning, meet with the local guide for the “Florence Street Food & Market” tour—the most authentic and original way to discover Florence through its flavors. This culinary itinerary combines visits to local markets with tastings of the best Tuscan street food, all guided by a local expert. Your adventure begins with a delicious seasonal baked specialty, followed by a stroll through the city's liveliest and most authentic market stalls. You'll learn how to shop like a true Florentine and stop to savor traditional Tuscan dishes. Along the way, through curious anecdotes about cheeses, cured meats, and local products, you'll uncover the secrets of popular cuisine and enjoy a multisensory experience immersed in Florence's gastronomic culture. Free afternoon for individual activities or relaxation. Dinner at your leisure and overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 3 - Siena

Breakfast at the hotel. In the morning, private transfer to Siena. Arrival and check-in at the selected hotel. Free time for lunch. In the afternoon, meet with the local guide and begin a walking tour of Siena. Visit the historic city center, including the Cathedral, Piazza del Campo, the Torre del Mangia, and the Palazzo Pubblico. The tour lasts approximately 3 hours. At the end, return to the hotel on your own. In the evening, dinner at a traditional restaurant within walking distance. Overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 4 - Siena and the Chianti Hills

Breakfast at the hotel. Departure with a private transfer to Castellina in Chianti, where you will visit an estate nestled in the Chianti hills. This former monastery offers spectacular views over the vineyards, with a charming cypress-lined avenue leading to a magnificent panoramic terrace. Enjoy a guided tour of the wine cellars, followed by a wine tasting of top-quality wines and a light lunch. After the visit, return to Siena and enjoy free time for individual activities. Dinner at your leisure. Overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 5 - Siena

Breakfast at the hotel and check-out. End of services.

Tuscany: Between Culture and Craftsmanship

In the heart of Florence, amid ancient workshops and the scent of history, lies an art form that has captivated for centuries: paper marbling. This treasured tradition, passed down through generations, is the perfect embodiment of Tuscany culture — blending manual mastery, aesthetic finesse, and a profound connection to natural materials.

Taking part in this activity is more than just a class; it's a true Tuscany culture trip. As swirling colors and age-old techniques come to life, you'll feel immersed in a living tradition that reveals the soul of the region. It's a moment of artistry woven into your broader Tuscany trip itinerary, where every gesture carries the weight of history.

After discovering the secrets of this refined craft, the experience continues at the table — with authentic flavors that reflect the heart of the Tuscan countryside. Think timeless recipes, seasonal ingredients, and wines that tell stories. It's all part of the most intimate and enriching trip to Tuscany Italy, where taste and tradition meet.

Whether included in a tailored trip to Tuscany package, or as a highlight in your tours through Tuscany, this is the kind of experience that defines a truly memorable Tuscany itinerary.

5 days / 4 nights – stays from Wednesday to Sunday