To this walking itinerary, you can add a tasty and characteristic moment: not just a place to see, but a true delight to taste, such as the famous panzerotti from Luini or some typical Milanese dishes. The historic center is also full of restaurants where you can try other local specialties.

Afternoon, Brera, Piazza Gae Aulenti, Porta Nuova, Bosco Verticale

The visit continues with a walk through the Brera district, with its unique charm, considered Milan's artists' quarter. Through historic alleys and streets lined with typical shops, you'll reach Piazza Gae Aulenti and the Porta Nuova district, a symbol of the ultramodern city, filled with futuristic buildings like the Vertical Forest, one of the most luxurious residential complexes. Additionally, you can admire the Unicredit Tower, the skyscraper that reaches 231 meters in height to its spire, one of the tallest in Italy.

Evening, Darsena, Navigli, aperitif and dinner

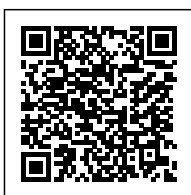

Our tour concludes at the Darsena, the ancient port of Milan, where the Naviglio Grande meets the Naviglio Pavese. This area of the city underwent a major urban redevelopment for Expo 2015.
