Duration: 5 days 4 nights

Min number of people: 2

The price refers to: person

Program:

Day 1 - March 29, 2026 - Pesaro

Individual arrival in Pesaro at the Imperial Sport Hotel*. Check-in to reserved rooms and welcome aperitif. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 2 - March 30, 2026 - Gradara and the San Bartolo panoramic road

Breakfast at the hotel. In the morning, departure for the medieval village of Gradara, located about 73 km from Pesaro, in a region rich in olive groves, vineyards, and culinary tradition. Upon arrival, meet with the local guide for a tour of the Rocca (fortress) and fortified village, among the best-preserved medieval structures in the Marche region and in Italy. After the guided visit, enjoy a lunch/tasting in a traditional village trattoria, where you can savor dishes from both Marche and Emilia-Romagna culinary traditions. A highlight is the local specialty: "Tagliolini con la Bomba", a rustic dish with a curious name linked to its preparation method. In the afternoon, free time to stroll through the village's charming streets and explore its artisan shops. On the way back, we recommend taking the San Bartolo Scenic Road, offering breathtaking panoramic views. Return to the hotel, dinner, and overnight stay.

Day 3 - March 31, 2026 - Recanati - Loreto - Conero

Breakfast at the hotel. Departure for Recanati, one of the most visited towns in the Marche region, and birthplace of renowned poet Giacomo Leopardi. Guided tour of the historic center and landmarks related to Leopardi. Continue to Loreto, one of the world's most important pilgrimage sites and home to the largest Marian sanctuary in Italy. Free visit. The journey continues to the Conero Riviera to discover beautiful seaside towns such as Numana, Sirolo, and Ancona, with the opportunity to enjoy local seafood specialties. Return to the hotel, dinner, and overnight stay.

Day 4 - April 1, 2026 - Urbino and the Furlo Gorge

Breakfast at the hotel. Morning dedicated to a guided tour of Urbino, a jewel of the Italian Renaissance nestled among the rolling Marche hills, and a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1998. Lunch at "Il Castello" restaurant or similar, where culinary excellence meets nature in a unique 15th-century setting. In the afternoon, continue through the Furlo Gorge Nature Reserve, a true natural paradise known for its remarkable flora and fauna. Return to the hotel in Pesaro, dinner, and overnight stay.

Day 5 - April 2, 2026 - Pesaro

Breakfast at the hotel and check-out. Morning guided tour of Pesaro, a city steeped in ancient cultural traditions and birthplace of famed composer Gioachino Rossini, recognized by UNESCO as a "Creative City of Music." After the tour, lunch in a traditional family-run trattoria in the heart of Novilara, featuring local specialties such as tagliatelle with beans and other regional dishes. End of services.
